

2009 JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT OF NEW YORK LEADERSHIP HONOREES

Student of the Year

Sumit Pal, 12th Grade

Information Technology High School

Sumit Pal is a senior at Information Technology High School in Long Island City, Queens and second-year JANY Student Ambassador who lives in Woodside, Queens.

Sumit has progressively grown into the role of Student Ambassador and has definitely put the bar high for the expectations of his fellow Student Ambassadors. Amazingly, he manages to consistently juggle multiple school extracurricular activities and increasing roles in the Student Ambassador program while maintaining a 96 average.

He participated in JA Job Shadows, Business Plan Competition, Company Program, JANY High School Heroes events teaching elementary students and public speaking opportunities promoting JA and sharing his experience in the program.

Anne Williams, JANY Board Chair, Sumit Pal & Doug Schallau, JANY President.

He is most reliable with a genuine concern for others seeking chances to help others on his way to the top. Sumit is interested in computer engineering and recently accepted to NYU Poly-Polytech Institution of NYU, where he will attend in the Fall 2009.
