

2009 JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT OF NEW YORK LEADERSHIP HONOREES

Volunteer of the Year

Douglas Viviani, Attorney

Law Office of Douglas Viviani

Douglas is an attorney that runs his own business and has flexibility to teach classes at various times during the day. Douglas taught two "It's My Business" classes at Wantagh Middle School and three "Exploring Economics" classes at William Floyd High School.

Teachers and students all compliment Douglas on his facilitation skills. Douglas is also committed to helping JANY by fundraising for his classroom! He participated in the inaugural Sponsor My Classroom Campaign and enlisted his friends, colleagues and family to donate to Junior Achievement. To date he has raised over $800. Douglas is a brand new Dad who had his first child, a baby girl, born in April 2009!
